

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY POLICY

Last Updated: 29/01/2026

Applies to all Quantisca products, software, content, and branding

1. Introduction

This Intellectual Property Policy (“Policy”) explains how Quantisca (“we”, “us”, “our”) protects and enforces its intellectual property rights across all products, software, tools, websites, branding, and digital materials (“Quantisca Assets”).

By accessing or using any Quantisca Asset, you agree to comply with this Policy.

2. Ownership of Intellectual Property

All Quantisca Assets are the exclusive property of Quantisca, including but not limited to:

- software, Expert Advisors (EAs), indicators, scripts
- algorithms, logic, strategies, and trading methodologies
- source code and compiled code
- documentation and technical materials
- website content, text, and copywriting
- branding, logos, trademarks, and visual identity
- graphics, images, icons, and design elements
- educational materials, guides, and training content

- marketing materials and promotional content
- internal systems, processes, and workflows

No rights are transferred to the user except the limited license explicitly granted in the applicable agreement (e.g., EULA).

3. Prohibited Actions

Users are strictly prohibited from engaging in any of the following activities:

3.1. Copying & Reproduction

- copying or reproducing any Quantisca Asset
- duplicating software, content, or branding
- creating backups or copies without permission

3.2. Distribution & Sharing

- sharing Quantisca Assets with third parties

3.5. Unauthorized Use of Branding

- using Quantisca's name, logo, or branding without permission
- creating content that implies affiliation or endorsement
- imitating Quantisca's visual identity

Any violation may result in immediate license termination and legal action.

4. Trademarks

The following are protected trademarks of Quantisca:

- “Quantisca”
- all sub brands (e.g., Quantisca Trading, Quantisca Circle, Quantisca Academy, etc.)
- all logos, icons, and brand marks
- all proprietary taglines and slogans

Unauthorized use of trademarks is strictly prohibited.

5. Software Protection

All Quantisca software, including EAs, indicators, and tools, is protected by:

- copyright law
- trade secret law
- international IP treaties
- licensing systems
- digital rights management (DRM)
- anti tampering mechanisms

Users must not attempt to bypass or interfere with these protections.

6. Confidential Information

Certain Quantisca Assets contain confidential and proprietary information, including:

- trading logic and algorithms
- internal methodologies
- strategic frameworks
- unreleased features
- technical documentation

Users must not disclose, share, or publish any confidential information.

7. Reporting Intellectual Property Violations

If you believe that Quantisca's intellectual property has been infringed, you must notify us immediately at:

[Your Contact Email]

Include:

- description of the violation
- links or evidence
- your contact information

Quantisca will investigate and take appropriate action.

8. Enforcement

Quantisca reserves the right to:

- suspend or terminate licenses
- block access to products
- pursue civil or criminal action
- seek damages and compensation
- issue takedown notices
- involve legal authorities

Enforcement may occur without prior notice.

9. User Cooperation

Users agree to:

- comply with all IP protection measures
- refrain from any prohibited actions
- notify Quantisca of suspected violations
- cooperate with investigations

Failure to comply may result in legal consequences.

10. No Transfer of Rights

Nothing in this Policy grants users:

- ownership rights
- intellectual property rights
- rights to modify or distribute
- rights to sublicense
- rights to create derivative works

All rights remain exclusively with Quantisca.

11. Changes to This Policy

Quantisca may update this Policy at any time. Continued use of Quantisca Assets constitutes acceptance of the updated version.
